

Keep the No Call list as it is. Do not lift it or lessen it. I do not want to be bothered by unwanted calls and for months now have had some peace and quiet as a result of the No Call Privacy Law. Before this law I screened all of my call by answering machine. I don't want to have to go back to doing that